- Home Life
- Education
- Arts/Crafts
- Conservation
- Public Affairs
- International Affairs

DUNBAR CLUBWOMEN have been instrumental, and in many cases have been the catalyst, in the implementation of many projects designed to improve our community. Over the years our member volunteers have contributed to projects such as:

- Scholarship Awards
- Outreach programs (for example: provided 3,000 suitcases and backpacks to foster children)
- Health fairs
- City beautification projects
- Child abuse prevention
- Promoting recycling
- Supporting Hospice
- Providing books to the schools
- Supporting the local food pantry

If you are a woman between 18 and 118 years of age, simply complete this application for membership and remit the annual dues of $27. The Dunbar club meets at 6:00pm on the first Thursday of the month September through December and February through May. Our beautifully decorated clubhouse is located at 323 14th Street in Dunbar.
